

Population Facts

1. Dramatic Changes of Immigrant Population

The U.S. immigrant population stood at more than 42.4 million, or 13.3 percent, of the total U.S. population of 318.9 million in 2014, according to ACS (American Community Survey) data.

Between 2013 and 2014, the foreign-born population increased by 1 million (www.migrationpolicy.org/article/frequently-requested-statistics-immigrants-and-immigration-united-states)

12.8 million Asian immigrants in the United States in 2014;

30% of the nation's 42.4 million immigrants.

(<http://www.migrationpolicy.org/article/asian-immigrants-united-states>)

2. Asian Indian Immigrants

The Asian Indian immigrants – the fastest growing ethnic group in the United States representing the 3rd largest immigrant group by country of origin, behind Mexico and China (from almost 1,022,600 in 2000 to 1,780,300 in 2010, 74% increase in 10 years)

(<http://www.migrationpolicy.org/article/indian-immigrants-united-states-0#1>)

California had the largest number of Indian immigrants in 2011

(380,700 or 21 percent of the nation's nearly 1.9 million Indian born)

(<http://www.migrationpolicy.org/article/indian-immigrants-united-states-0#1>)

3. California

In 2014, the top five U.S. states by number of immigrants—

California (10.5 million = 27% out of the total state population),

Texas and New York (4.5 million each), Florida (4 million), and New Jersey (2 million)

(http://www.migrationpolicy.org/article/frequently-requested-statistics-immigrants-and-immigration-united-states#Immigrant Population Change over Time)

4. Children of immigrant families

In US in 2015, children in immigrant families are 17,866,000

Children in native families : 52,079,000

Share of children from immigrant families in all children in US: 25.5%

In California in 2015, children in immigrant families are 4,313,000

Children in native families: 4,389,000

Population Facts

Share of children from immigrant families in all children in California: 49.6%

(<http://www.migrationpolicy.org>)

5. UPGs and UUPGs in America

1,265 Ethnic groups in US.

343 UPGs (unreached people group-less than 2% Christians in the group)

191 UUPGs (unreached and unengaged)

(IMB, International Mission Board; www.peoplegroups.org)

327 language groups in US

215 language groups in California

(www.peoplegroups.org; U.S. Census Bureau, 2006-2008 American Community Survey)

6. Rapid changes of population in California and in the Bay Area

10.5 million foreign-born immigrants in California (2014)

27% of all population in California

1/4 of all immigrants in US

(MPI, Migration Policy Institute)

Bay Area, the fastest growing area in California

Since the 2010 Census—and for the first time in many decades—the Bay Area has experienced the fastest growth of any region in the state (<http://www.ppic.org>)

2 million (2,098,331) foreign-born immigrants from more than 70 countries accounting for 30% of 7million (7,150,739) in the Bay Area (Census 2010)

(Public Policy Institute of California, www.ppic.org)

Bi-lingual-Half of the population in the Bay Area

44.2% (342,000) of San Francisco population,

55.5 % (489,000) of San Jose population are bi-lingual.

(Public Policy Institute of California, www.ppic.org, 5/18/2005 press release)

More Than 40 Percent Of State's Youth Are Children Of Immigrants (2005)

(<http://www.ppic.org/main/pressrelease.asp?i=554>)